Faculty Director Search
Jerome Fisher Program in Management & Technology

The School of Engineering and Applied Science (SEAS) and the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania have initiated a search for an outstanding scholar to serve as the Director of the prestigious Jerome Fisher Program in Management & Technology (M&T).

The M&T Program (http://www.upenn.edu/fisher/) combines academics from two phenomenal Penn assets, Penn Engineering and the Wharton School, into one unique educational experience. Founded in 1977, it has attracted some of the brightest undergraduates in the world. With over 1,900 alumni worldwide, graduates from the M&T Program are corporate leaders and innovators in a number of industries and fields, including investment banking, the technology sector, hedge funds and private equity, venture capital, aviation, medicine, biotechnology, consulting, law, and more. The M&T community in general is highly entrepreneurial, working on their own ventures or collaborating on start-up enterprises. With eight regional groups across the globe, M&T alumni love to stay connected, and frequently recruit fellow graduates and current students for internships and full-time positions.

The Director of the Jerome Fisher Program in Management & Technology should be an individual with an exceptional record of:

- A world-class scholar in a relevant area of engineering, management, innovation or related field with a broad understanding of issues across domains
- An international leader and educational innovator that has a vision for the future of the program in an era of growing innovation
- An institution builder that will work with faculty, students and leadership across SEAS and Wharton as well with an extremely deep alumni base in executing the vision.

Candidates must hold a Ph.D. in engineering, management, or related area. The academic appointment of the Director is expected to be at the level of tenured Full Professor holding the Jeffrey A. Keswin Professorship, and could be in any relevant department in SEAS, Wharton, or across schools, depending on the applicant. Diversity candidates are strongly encouraged to apply. Interested persons should submit their application here: http://tinyurl.com/mandtsearch-upenn. Questions regarding this unique opportunity should be directed to mandtsearch@upenn.edu. Review of applications will begin August 1, 2015.
